Joshua Nadzieja

Full-stack Web Development

I'm an aspiring Web Developer looking to get into the field after my coding bootcamp has ended. I'm focused on achieving success no matter the circumstances. I love learning and I'm always willing to try my hand in anything new. I'm great at working on a team or independently, and I work really well under pressure. I'm outgoing, personable, and friendly and work well in many types of environments.
